

Employment Opportunity

Town Historian

After many years of service our Town Historian, Dan Robeson, has retired. The Town of Middlesex is looking for someone to fill the big shoes he has left behind. The position can be as simple or complex as the Historian wants it to be. This is an appointed position that pays $1,000 per year. For more information or to apply, contact David Adam at supervisor@middlesexny.org

Job Description:

- Promote preservation of history.
- Educate the community about history through writing and public presentations.
- Be a resource to schools and other community groups.
- Help organize celebrations of historical events.
- Help with fundraising and acquiring grants.